Tulane vs Alabama

BOTH TEAMS UNDEFEATED

Tulane gets down to the serious matter of Southeastern Conference action tonight when Bear Bryant's Alabama Crimson Tide moves in. Both clubs carry undefeated records into the struggle.

The Tide rolled past defending champion Georgia 21-6 last Saturday to show it means business in the 1960 title chase while Tulane upset California 7-3 in a defensive melee that left Wave supporters gasping for breath after several crucial goal line stands.

A Green Wave victory tonight would throw the SEC race into a jumbled tie, depending upon the outcome of other conference games. A win for 'Bama would put it top the heap for the second week in a row.

Offensively Tulane looked adequate in the win over Cal, but it left you with the opinion that the Greenies are going to move the football a lot this season. Poor field position and a scrambling defensive game contained the Wave offense in the opener, although Tommy Mason impressed the West Coast press that he has all the tools needed to qualify as an All-American. He was voted the game's outstanding back.

It was on defense that the Wave stole the show. Limiting the highly-touted California offense to only 69 yards on the ground and 87 in the air, the Wave looked as though it won't be as easy to score upon this season.

Guard Dave Michiels, ends Bill Roach, Pat McLean and Jim Evans, tackles Bernie Darre, Ernie Colquette and Joe LeSage, plus center

THORNTON

Larry Thompson assisted by some fine secondary defense, completely contained the Golden Bears' offense.

Alabama brings to town one of the nation's finest defensive clubs, and the promise of a fine offense this year. Little Billy Richardson was the star of the Georgia win. He was joined by the running of Tommy White, the passing of quarterback Bobby Skelton and the running of quarterback Pat Trammell in upsetting the Bulldogs.

Guard Billy Neighbors anchors a big, stubborn 'Bama line, that has both size and experience.

A special halftime treat tonight will be the appearance of the fine University of Alabama band, which is said to be one of the nation's top collegiate bands.

TULANE'S probable starting backfield for tonight's game will consist of left halfback Tommy Mason (20) of Lake Charles, fullback Lenny Stein (44) of New Orleans, quarterback Phil Nugent (10) of Lafayette, and right halfback Terry Terrebonne (38) of New Orleans. These four backs represent one of the finest Greenie quartets in recent years.

Second section of today's Cam-pix is devoted to the Tulane Day Camp. More than 800 boys and girls attended this summer, all getting as much into the swing of camp activities as Frank Morgan Bell, shown here. At the right is catcher Charles Englander.

Counselor Jack Dardis, left, gives a lesson in kicking to a group of young swimmers. Facilities of the University Center, including the Monk Simons Memorial swimming pool, were used for Day Camp.

One of the more popular indoor games was "gym scooter." These girls demonstrate their skills — and laughs — as they scoot across the floor.

The teen-age camp program included dancing. Learning a new step from Counselor Patricia Bryan is camper Richard Alders.

ALMA MATER

We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater!
Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully;
The incense of thy spirit hath ascended
And filled America from sea to sea!

We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
Today thy children look to thee for bread!
Thou leadest them to dreams and action splendid!
The hunger of their souls is richly fed!

We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
The vista of its glory gleameth far!
We shall ever be part of thee, great Mother!
There thou will be where e'er thy children are!

Chorus

Olive Green and Blue, we love thee.
Pledge we now our fealty true
Where the trees are ever greenest,
Where the skies are purest blue.
Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us.
As we proudly sing to thee!
Take from us our heart's devotion!
Thine we are, and thine shall be!

ROLL ON, TULANE

Here's a song for the Olive and the Blue.
Here's a cheer for the team that's tried and true.
Here's a pledge of loyalty to thee.
Oh, Tulane Varsity.
Here's to the Greenbacks that never will say die,
And here's to the hearts that are true
To the men of Tulane who are fighting for her name,
For the Olive and the Blue.

Chorus

Roll, Green Wave,
Roll them down the field.
Hold, Green Wave,
That line must never yield.
When those Greenbacks charge through the line
They're bound for victory.
Hail, Green Wave,
For you we give a cheer.
Hail, Green Wave,
For you we have no fear.
So ev'ry man in ev'ry play,
And then we'll win that game today.
Hurrah for Old Tulane!

TULANE BASKETBALL PROSPECTS BRIGHT

Coach Cliff Wells ranks as one of the nation's top basketball coaches, with 229 victories and 132 losses in 15 years as head coach at Tulane.

This year's Wave cage team could be one of Cliff's finest. Four lettermen return, including sophomore sensation of last year—big Jack Ardon, a 6-9 center. Ardon was named the SEC Soph-of-the-Year after his brilliant play last season.

Other lettermen back are Gus Wenzel (6-5), Bob March (5-9) and Rex Krider (6-0). Sophs Dale Gott and Jim Kerwin are expected to add strength. Squadmen Gary Lindboe (6-0), Dale Cloak (6-4), Richie Berger (6-5), Norm Delph (6-1), and Jerry Varland (6-0) will also be back.

"Daddy put his foot down!"

"Last week, I had the car filled with a different gas—and what a lecture I got! Daddy put his foot down. Seems he never uses anything but Amoco-Gas, because it's the gas that has no lead in it. He says that lead in gas fouls up the engine . . . but that unleaded Amoco-Gas keeps engine parts clean and trouble-free. I'm convinced! Fact is, I can't imagine why anyone would buy anything but Amoco-Gas." AND NEITHER DO WE!
